In Memory

Roosevelt Wilbur (R. W.) Campbell, Sr., son of the late George F. and Ida Jane Fore Campbell, was born on April 3, 1917 in Bulloch County, Georgia. He answered God's call on Friday, February 11, 1994, at the Bulloch Memorial Hospital, Statesboro, Georgia.

R. W., as he was known to family and friends, attended the public schools of Bulloch County, graduating as the valedictorian of his 1934 Class at Statesboro High and Industrial School. He enrolled in Johnson C. Smith University but later transferred to Georgia State Industrial College, now Savannah State College, and graduated with a B. S. Degree in Agriculture in 1938. He received his Master's Degree from Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa.

His first job was principal and agricultural teacher at Willow Hill School. He worked as principal of the Evans County Training School, Claxton, Ga., for two years and returned as teacher of Vocational Agriculture at Statesboro High and Industrial School in 1941. His work carried him to Edward Johnson School, Brooklet, Ga., Julia P. Bryant School, Statesboro, Ga., Butler High School, Eatonton, Ga., and Blakeney Junior High School, Waynesboro, Ga., where he retired from the public schools after 36 years. He joined the Georgia State Department of Corrections and worked for 18 years as Educational Supervisor of the School at the Coastal Correctional Institution, Savannah, Ga., where he retired on December 31, 1991.

R. W. held membership as follows: life member of N. E. A., Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, and the American Correction (Education) Association. He was honored as a Instructional Development Educational Association (I.D.E.A.) Fellow in 1967, and was among 100 educators who were given a free trip to a workshop in Honolulu, HI. He served as president of the Department of Elementary School Principals from 1955 to 1961.

He also served as Chairman of the Board of Deacons of the Little Bethel Baptist Church from 1945 until his demise.

R. W. leaves innumerable happy memories which will be cherished in the hearts of his wife, sons, sisters, friends and the rest of his family.

Survivors are wife, Mrs. Geraldyn Moody Campbell of Statesboro, Ga.; two sons, R. Wilbur Campbell, Jr. of Atlanta, Ga. and Ronald E. Campbell of Statesboro, Ga.; three sisters, Mrs. Ida J. Lovett, Mrs. Evelyn Summers, both of Millen, Ga. and Mrs. Gladys Glover Davis of Newark, DE; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Phyllis Campbell of Statesboro, Ga.; five grandchildren, Mrs. Renee Campbell Clark, Michael Campbell, Ms. Deidra Reid, Ms. Tanisha Campbell and Ronald Enrico Campbell; four great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.
